Baltimore, July 6, 1852.

Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray: Gents: Last September I was attacked with erysipelas, from which a dreadful ulcer formed on my right leg. Getting better of this, hast November I took a deep cold, which led to what my physician told mwas billious pleurisy, which left me with a constant, deeply-seated, and painful cough, having no rest day or night, and constantly throwing up from my lungs a thick matter. I became much emaciated, growing weaker every day, and keeping my bed the greater part of the time. My friends thought I had the consumption, and at times I was also of the same opinion. At this stage of my disease, sifer having tried many and various remedies, without success, a friend advised me to try DR. HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINC TURE, and precured me a bottle, which I now pronounce the greatest medicine I ever took. Before I had taken half the contents of one bottle I felt much improved; and now, having taken but two bottes, my cough and pains have entirely left me, and I am enabled to attend to business. I can truly say that, with the blessing of God, I have been restored to the health I now enjoy by the use of this most invaluable medicine.

Yours, WESLEY ROCK,

Truth stranger than Fiction!-None need despair !-

A Lady's Testimony after thirty-eight years of suffering! Were there not real virtue in this wonderful medicine could it perform the astonishing cures made by it?

Messrs. Tyler & Adair: I have been afflicted with Rheu matism, at times, from my twelfth year; I will be fifty years of age the 18th of this month; the attacks were at times so severe as to render me helpless; I have tried various remedies to very little effect. Last October I was attacked in my shoulders, sides, back, and hips; I could not rest, day or night; I could not now any nast of my bedge vited or night; I could not move any part of my body without cr ng with pain; at this time I also tried many remedies, i d external, without receiving any relief; I was a led to try HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE last advised to the transfer of which I felt much better, and as I continued taking it I felt strength coming into my back and limbs, and my stemach strengthened and revived every way; I have taken five bottles, and am much better every way; I have taken fiv than I ever expected to be. need it, and would recomme it unequalled. ed to be. I intend to use it whenever recommend it to the afflicted, believing Yours, ELIZABETH BAGWELL.

REV. VERNON ESKRIDGE, U. S. N.

PORTSMOUTH, (Va.,) Aug. 18, 1851.

Mr. J. E. Boush—Dear Sir: While I am in general opposed to Patent Medicines, candor compels me to state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. For several months past I have used it in my family, and in Dyspepia, loss of appetite, dizziness, and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends, therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient remedy.

I am, respectfully, yours, VERNON ESKRIDGE, Chaplain in the U. S. Navy.

KRAUSER'S PATENT CLOVER-SEED HAR-

KRAUSER'S PATENT CLOVER-SEED HARVESTER

IS REFORE THE PUBLIC FOR THE FIRST TIME!

Its utility is beyond comparison with any other farming implement now in use. It takes the seed from the field, leaving the straw or grass all standing. It weighs two hundred and fifty pounds, is drawn by one horse, and gathers from ten to twelve acres per day. The fingers, or teeth, eatch all the heads, the revolving knives cut them off and throw them back into the box, which will cross a twenty-acre field without emptying. The heads are then loaded into a wagon and taken directly to the mill for cleaning, thus diminishing the labor three-fourths, and saving all the reed. This machine comes so low that every farmer will hace it, and pays the manufacturer 300 per cent.

E. WHEELER, Agent for Washington.

CROSS KEYS, WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP, CAMDEN Co., N. J., We, the undersigned, do certify that we have seen Mr. Kranser's Patent Clover Harvester in operation, and it ha given perfect satisfaction. It has gathered many of the remer's clover in this neighborhood—it is all that Mr. Kranser and his hills remeated it is.

Markets.

Валтимови, July 13-24 р. m. The Northern markets are unchanged, and but little doing. A grand excursion party of Whigs are preparng to make a pleasure trip to Lundy's Lane, Niagara Falls, and elsewere. They expect to start on the 25th of July.

A cowhiding match occurred on Baltimore street to-day. Robert Moore was the assailant and James Pendergast the assailed; but Pendergast turned and belabored Moore considerably. It was a regular Lundy's Lane affair.

A tremendous thunder storm, commencing at 10 o'clock this morning, continued one hour. The lightning struck several places. No serious injury done. Torrents of water for the whole

The following item was omitted, for want of room, from our Georgetown correspondent's etter of yesterday:

DISGRACEFUL CONDUCT. -Two scenes occurred in our town yesterday sufficient in themselves to shock the moral sensibilities of any one laying the slightest claim to decency. The first was a regular fight between a party of men and youths from your city and a party of youths of our town, with sticks, stones, &c. The office at Mr. Dean's rope-walk was considerably injured by the missiles thrown by the parties, and several persons who were passing by were struck with stones. The second was a regular game at fisticuffs between two men! (pardon the mistake,) which drew together a neisy crowd of fifty or mere persons. The first occurred near the east end of West street, and the second near the cor-

The work is prospering, and it is folly in our adversaries to vaunt of anticipated success. They have a weak cause and a weak ticket, and they will give to them but a weak support. General Scott's religious belief has been made a subject of inquiry. The General himself long since settled the question. In a letter addressed to G. W. Reed, of Philadelphia, he said: "I am happy to see, by the Philadelphia National Standard, that religion is to be excluded as a party element. Staunch Protestant as I am. both by birth and conviction, I shall never consent to a party or State religion. "Religion is too sacred to be mingled up with either. It should always be kept between each individual and his God, except in the way of reason and gentle persuasion; as in families, churches, and other occasions of voluntary attendance (after years of discretion) or reciprocal WINFIELD SCOTT." The Elyria Courier [where is Elyria ?] says the identical gun used by Ethan Allen, during his services in the revolutionary war, is now in possession of N. H. Underhill, of that village.

Also, the gun used by Gen. Wayne, and with which he made himself so notorious in picking

Indians from the tops of trees, is now in a gunshop in that village to be repaired. ELEPHANT SHOOTING.—It appears, from the relations of Colonel Campbell, in his accounts of sundry sporting excursions in Ceylon, that it is less dangerous to fall in with a herd than with a single elephant. A herd generally makes off, placing themselves, if they happen to have young ones with them, between you and them, as if instinctively afraid of your injuring or firing at them, and thus apparently preferring to expose themselves, rather than their young, to the danger which they apprehend from man. A stray elephant is usually a male which has been beaten out of the herd, and rendered so desperate that he is disposed to attack any one furiously. The natives call such a "rogue elephant," and carefully keep out of its way. There is no use in firing at an elephant, except with brass balls, as leaden ones usually flatten, on his India-rubber hide. The way in elephant shooting is, to walk up to the animal, who stands wondering at your audacity, to aim at the spot about the eyes, or at the eye itself, with a small brass ball, when down comes the monster. If one barrel fails, there is the chance of another, and the hope of being supported by a companion; but the proceeding is hazardous. How wretched is his condition who depends or his daily support on the hospitality of others.

Another Yankee yacht has been victorious in British yacht race at Birkenhead lately. It was the stoop Truant, of 34 tens, taken over for the purpose by Mr. Grinnell, of New York. She beat three model yachts with the greatest ease.

THE LAST OBJECTION. The Washington Union has a long article, comparing Gen. Scott with Gen. Pierce, concluding by saying of the former: "There is something in his attitude and demeanor that proclaims to the humble farmer, me-chanic, and sitizen, 'Behold me the general-inof the army-the hero of Lundy's Lane and As the Union does not carry out the comparion, we venture to do it, by adding that there is nothing in Gen. Pierce's attitude and demeanor or anywhere else-that proclaims him to be the general-in-chief of anything, or the hero of any occasion whatever.—Albany Register.

STILL THEY COME .- Gen. John R. Williams, one of the prominent opposition politicians, and for several years mayor of Detroit, supports the election of Scott and Graham, and is one of the vice presidents of the Detroit Scott Club. Major Jonathan Kearsley, of Detroit, who was badly crippled in the defence of his country, and a leader in the opposition ranks, is for Scott. Wheeling Gaz.
